Operations Manager Bulgaria

You are a technical generalist willing to help managing the growth and further optimize processes.

Your challenge:

You are responsible for all the operations including the Production, SCM and the Quality Management in our plant in Bulgaria. The Production line is lead by you. As you are part of the plant management, you are planning investments and secure their proper setup in the plant, lead the optimizations of all processes within your lines and develop your leaders. Depending on your background you are leading one of the lines. You are responsible for the budget adherence in your lines as well as an active OEE management. If necessary, you are participating in the projects of new lines and especially help to improve the delivery process from an end-to-end approach. You report directly to the plant manager.

Your profile:

You are having a technical or operations degree on applied university level or equivalent and ideally a further education in business management. Proven experience in an industrial environment is a must as well as experience in leading a production and/or operations, preferably in the stamping, tooling and assembly environment. Knowhow in plastic injection molding is a plus. You are familiar with the requirements of the Automotive Industry (IATF 16949 and VDA 6.3). As a passionate Leader with intercultural experience you know how to manage the potential risks occurring with that. You are ideally having an above green belt lean management certification. ERP System know-how in particular SAP is a big plus, thus fluent Business English and German is a must.

Your prospects:

We are offering a position in an entrepreneurial-thinking driven environment, in which you allowed to grow personally and expertise wise. As you are working for a family owned company, in which you can have an impact on the future of the company. Decisions are taken fast and focus is sustainable, human aspect oriented growth of business – never losing the fun aspect of doing business together.
