

We work for your success!

UNIVERSALJOB

Universal-Job AG • Baarerstrasse 43 • 6300 Zug

No. A-6-9981

Sr. Quality Assurance Associate (small molecules/packaging) / Pharma

Main tasks

Manage own assignments (i.e. 2nd level packaging of oral dosage) as well as to coordinate and prioritize among all GEQ Int. QA contacts, who are supposed to take action. Manage the QA interface with all Logistics service providers and warehouses under oversight. Looking after agreements and negotiations with existing vendors. Writing leaflets and creating new templates. Act as back up in managing the QA interface with manufacturing partners for small molecules (oral solid dosages) finished good products by ensuring quality, process transfers, validations, investigations, tracking and resolution of issues. Evaluation of the performance of contractors and the identification, implementation and follow-up of process and systems improvements. Organize and conduct QM reviews with CMO's.

Company profile

Within the Pharmaceutical Industry globally & successfully operating company.

Place of work

area of Zug

Start of work

Immediately

Education

bachelor, biotech or others

Experience

The successful candidate will show an experience of minimum 5-6 years in similar position in pharmaceutical or biotechnology industries with experience in Finished Good, manufacturing and small molecules. Furthermore relevant experience in either development, quality or regulatory; Mastering cGMPs, quality systems and regulations (FDA and EU, knowledge of Japanese or other geographies' regulations) is a plus; Are you highly autonomous, an outgoing communicator and thrive in an international and multicultural environment? Then please apply at Ms. Ilinca Lang, i.lang@universal-job.ch.

Languages

English - Very good
French - Of value
Italian - Of value

Motivation

A dynamic working environment focusing on career opportunities where multi-cultural teams from all over the world strive the best results

Special requirements Due to the growing and very dynamic business it is likely that this position will become extended or other opportunities may arise at a later stage, however will start with a fixed term engagement until end of June 2020.